

First Destination Survey Master class of 2016 six months post-graduation

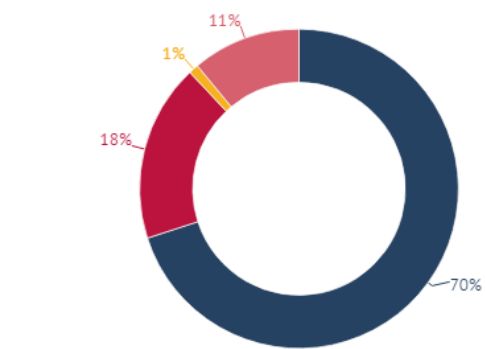

204 respondents
53 % response rate

*SPP and Business School are not included

Status

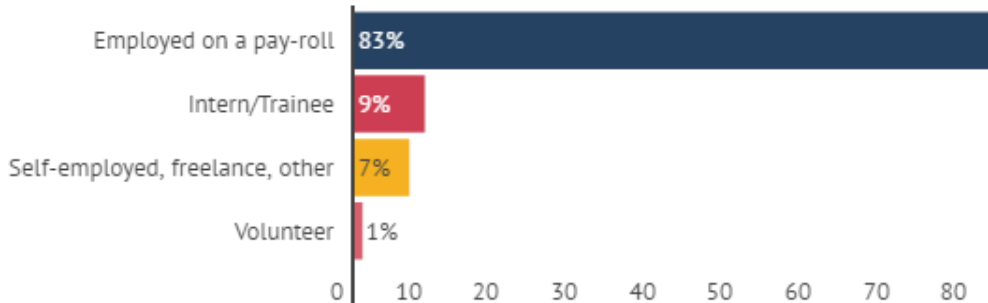

- Employed / Engaged in a work, internship or volunteering agreement
- Continuing studies
- Unemployed, but not seeking employment or educational opportunities
- Unemployed, seeking employment or educational opportunities

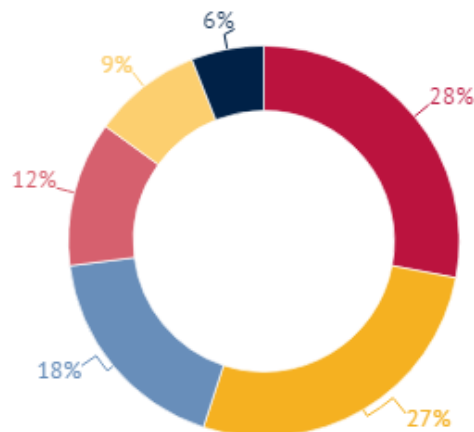

WORK INFORMATION

Type of employment

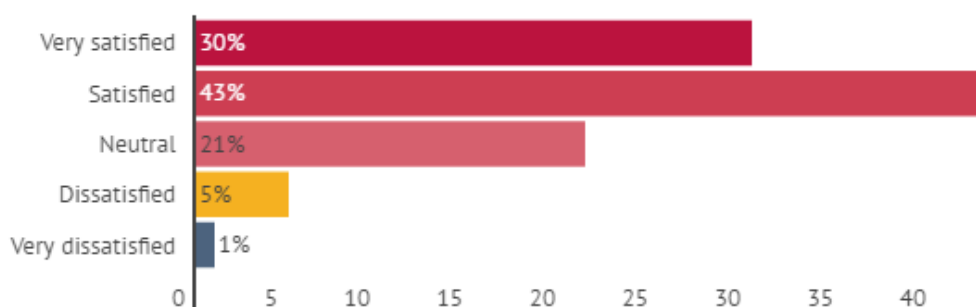

Area of employment

- Business
- Education & Research Institutions
- International Organizations
- Foundations & Advocacy Groups
- Other
- Government

Satisfaction with employment

Some of the Employers

European Institute for Gender Equality	Morgan Stanley	KPMG	Feminist Frequency	European Policy Center
The Constitutional Court of Georgia	Oxford Policy Management	Belarusian Institute for Strategic Studies	Baker McKenzie Law Firm	AmeriCorps
National Archives of Hungary	Council of Europe	Allen & Overy	Archive of Serbs
Hungarian Helsinki Committee	CEU	Armenian Territorial Development Fund	Aon Hewitt
International Organisation for Migration	Caucasus Research Resource Center
United Nations Development Programme

79%

Employed in an area relevant to their CEU degree

71%

Had less than 3 job interviews before being offered a position

65%

Sent out less than 10 resumes before securing a position

35%

Reported that networking with friends, alumni, faculty and family is the best source to find a job

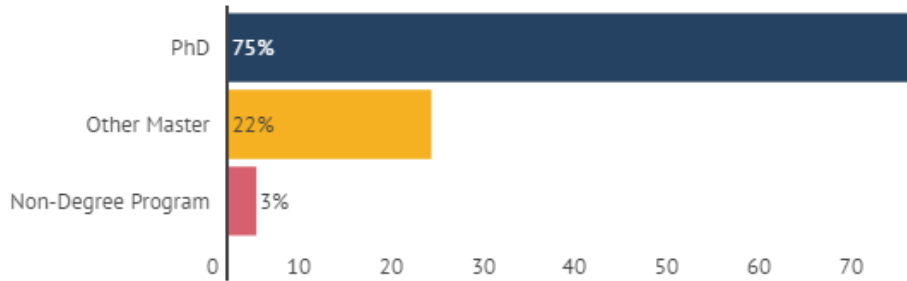

31%

Had a job by graduation

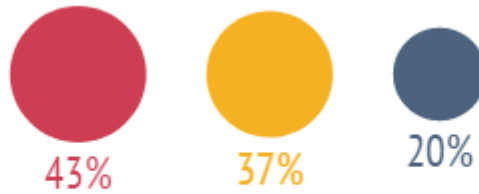

FURTHER STUDIES

Study Program

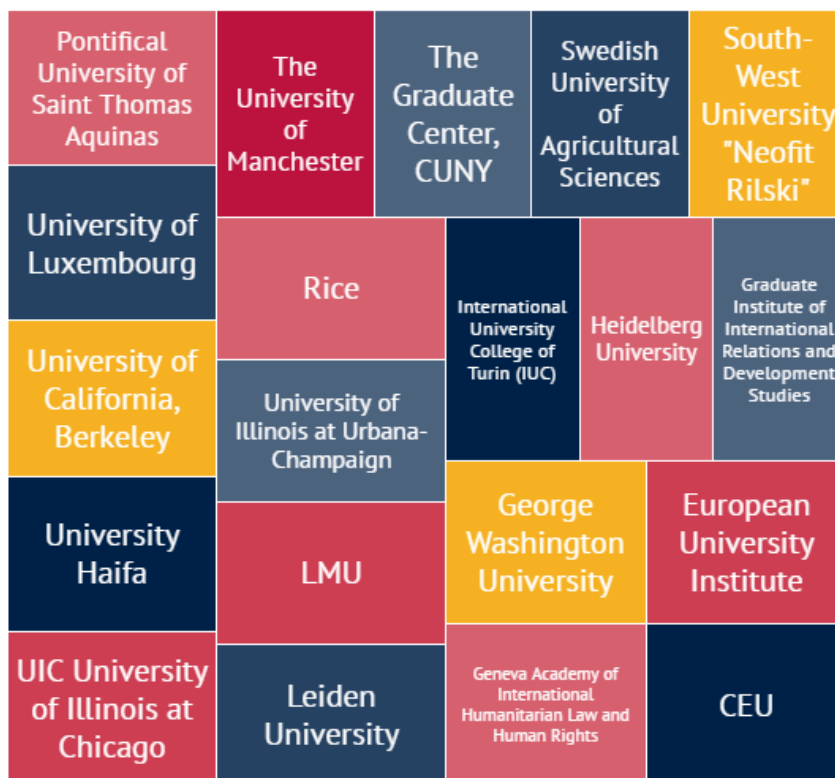

Field of Studies

● Humanities
 ● Social Sciences
 ● Other academic fields

Some of the Institutions

95%

Reported that CEU prepared them very well for further studies

90%

Are satisfied with their study program

51%

Chose to continue studying in order to develop a broader or more specialist range of skills or knowledge

Created by Alumni Relations and Career Services, CENTRAL EUROPEAN UNIVERSITY in 2017. The data is based on the analysis of the First Destination Survey, Class of 2016 collected in January – May 2017 from CEU master graduates. The graph is intended as a short summary of the most interesting results from the survey and it does not represent the official position of Central European University.